1.) I have found a source of funding that would allow us to hire an engineer to do a study of the options that might be possible at no cost to our tax payers to help us alleviate the impact of future flooding in our town. To qualify for this funding we must have a flood commission established of local residents. 1. Bud Gladstone Deputy Supervisor, 2. Frank Winkler Chairman of the Planning Board, 3. Tom Joyce Board Member, 4. Michael McAdams Highway Superintendent (Need a total of 7). There will be a joint meeting in January with the Planning Board.

Dear Town Board members,

I would like to let you know of my approval of a proposed Andes law prohibiting "frack waste" from being dumped in Andes or spread as "brine" on town roads as a de-icer. We all love living in Andes and the Catskills for numerous and diverse reason. However one of the reasons we can all agree is the beauty and sanctity of the land we live on and with. Anything that detracts from that resource should be looked at with thoughtfulness and suspicion.

I can think of no reason that the benefit would outweigh the harm of allowing fracking waste as part of our community. I strongly support this ban and hope you support it as well.

Re: Andes Local Law on "Frack Waste" and "Brine"

Background Information - Why this matters

So much "frack waste" from drill cuttings and wastewater is being produced by oil and gas drillers in Pennsylvania that the drilling companies are having difficulties figuring out where to dispose it.

Solid and liquid frack waste from the Marcellus shale formation is not only radioactive (because of high levels of naturally occurring radon in this particular shale formation), it is also chemically laden with toxins from both unlisted and unregulated hazardous chemicals used in the drilling process. This waste is unfortunately categorized by federal and state law as "industrial" rather than "hazardous." The "industrial" categorization allows the waste to be virtually unregulated as compared to the more strict standards which come with waste labeled "hazardous," thereby allowing shipment across state lines with little regulation.

In 2012 alone 1.2 billions gallons of frack wastewater were produced in Pennsylvania and 100 million gallons of this waste were trucked to Ohio for disposal.* Those numbers are for wastewater only. Regarding solid waste, Pennsylvania has produced 35 million cu. feet to date and approximately 8 million cu. feet annually.**

Schoharie, Tompkins, Westchester, Ulster, Orange, Putnam, Suffolk, Nassau, Rockland, Albany and Ondaga Counties in NY State have all enacted local laws to prohibit frack waste from entering their counties. The states of Connecticut and Vermont have done the same. Because of this PA drillers are now running short on options as to where they can dump this toxic waste and have been trucking it hundreds of miles to sites in Michigan, Ohio and West Virginia and as far away as Rochester in upstate NY. Unprotected communities much closer to PA are also their targets. We are less than 100 miles from the frack fields of PA and can't allow Andes to become one of these targets.

Those who have the privilege to know have the duty to act.

Mr. Bob Rictor

Dear Mr. Rictor,

The following is a summary of a recent phone conversation I had with Ms. Kathleen Vinlockinburg pertaining to the life-threatening intersection condition that exists in my community on Canada Hollow in Andes, NY.

First, thank you and your department for the recent repair of a drainage pipe at the intersection of Rt. 28 and Canada Hollow Road in Andes. (The site may not be completed as there is still an orange safety barrel with a non-working flashing light mounted on top?) Unfortunately, there still remains a very dangerous situation at this location...the Canada Hollow Road entrance itself.

The problem is as follows. Starting just a few yards south (on the east bound lane) is an extreme curve which creates a blind spot just a very short distance from the Canada Hollow egress point. There is absolutely no way for any driver exiting onto the highway to see oncoming traffic, especially going west, towards the town of Andes. Driving onto route 28 is a hair-raising experience. Trucks going east also have a difficult time because of their large wheel base. Some of my neighbors have likened it to playing Russian roulette with cars.

Regretfully, the current signage does not sufficiently warn west bound drivers; especially transients who are unfamiliar with local conditions -- many of whom exceed the speed limit of 35 MPH. The current signs warn only of "falling rocks", "bus turn- around" and "left side road intersection". These warnings are wholly insufficient for this particular situation. We have had accidents and countless near accidents at this intersection -- one particularly close call just the other day with one of our residents. I'm sure that a thorough evaluation of this intersection would indicate that dramatic steps must be promptly taken to eliminate this danger. We want to prevent a serious accident or possible fatality.

November 12, 2014

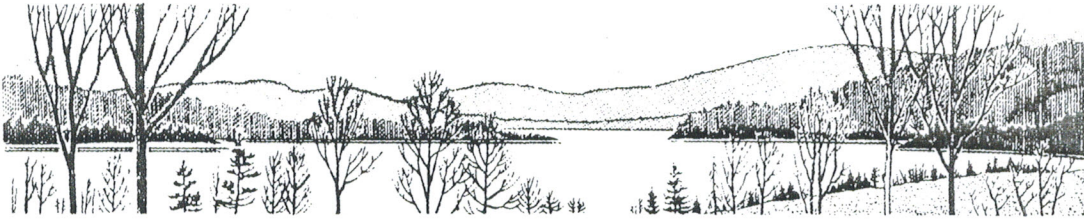

Eliminating the blind spot would be the ideal answer and we feel sure this can be accomplished. Additionally, rethinking the existing warning signs to include any or a combination of the following: reducing the speed limit; adding a traffic caution light; installing a concave mirror on the west bound side -- are all relatively simple solutions that can be done quickly. Half the road has recently been re-paved, and new replacement drainage pipes have just been installed by the township. We are hopeful that the 2nd half will be complete in the Spring of 2015. As Secretary/Treasurer of the Canada Hollow Homeowners Association, a private community consisting of 17 homeowners at the end of Canada Hollow Road, (part of a total of approximately 40 homes on this road) as well as residing here for 30 years I have witnessed the traffic increase which, of course, heightens the chance of a catastrophic accident. Our members and neighbors are very fearful that this is inevitable unless changes are made soon.

We are therefore asking for a review and remedy to this situation. Please feel free to contact me at 845-676-4517 with any questions you may have regarding this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Michael R. Bartfeld

Dear David:

On behalf of The Ballantine Park Committee, I would like to take a moment to thank you for your very generous gift, to the maintenance and upkeep of the park, of $500.00, it will be put to good use this fall and winter. As you know, the park is operated on a strict donation basis, and is not a part of the Town Budget.
